

July 4th Pet Safety Tips

Did you know that more dogs and cats go missing on July 4th than any other day of the year? Let's work together to keep your pets from becoming part of that statistic! We have compiled some helpful tips to keep your pets safe this holiday, that can be used for both dogs and cats.

- Make sure your pets ID tags are up to date with their name and your contact information
- Have a current photo of your pet for identification if needed
- Exercise your pet early in the day to release extra energy
- Keep curious pets away from fireworks and sparklers to reduce risk of injury or fright
- Keep pets indoors in a quiet, comfortable space
- Offer somewhere to hide, such as a kennel/crate or soft bed in a closet or other quiet space
- Give them something to do, such as an activity or treat toy.
